

RELIABLE, SCALABLE AND FLEXIBLE CLOUD INFRASTRUCTURE FOR SMEs

WHAT IS IAAS?

Infrastructure-as-a-Service (IaaS) is a combination of network, compute and storage components combined to create a highly scalable and flexible offering.

IaaS provides a lower total cost of ownership than on-premises infrastructure, along with a greater level of resilience and redundancy.

Outsourcery's IaaS – Core service offers SMEs and mid-market organisations the ideal platform on which to build specific applications for end-users. This also makes it a suitable platform for partners to use in servicing their customers.

PLATFORMS DESIGNED WITH UK BUSINESSES IN MIND

Working with best-of-breed suppliers, like Microsoft and Dell, Outsourcery has developed a UK sovereign IaaS offering, designed with UK small and mid-sized organisations in mind.

The offering reduces the complexity and cost of implementing robust and scalable cloud solutions, leveraging award-winning technology and economies of scale.

What's more, support is UK-based too, so users can rest assured that our dedicated team of cloud experts is always on hand.
